CONGRESS.

THIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS-VIRST SESSION

After our report had closed yesterday, Mr. atteeon addressed the Committee at length opposition to the Nebraska bill, to the folwing effect:

lowing effect:

"There is the bond, to which you pledged yourselves when Missouri was admitted. The contract to us has been worthless during thirty-three years; we have waited patiently; and now, when this vast country is about to be peopled by States of freemen as extensive as the thirteen Colonies, you step in and say, No, it shall not be; that the solemn engagements made by us shall be trampled in the dust."

Senate, Wednesday, April 5, 1854.

On motion by Mr. Johnson, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the bill for the relief of William Claude Jones: and the same

Mr. Pettit reported a bill supplementary to the act confirming certain claims to land in the State of Missouri, and for other purposes; and the same was considered and passed.

Several petitions were presented, and reports made—all of a private character.

Mr. Geyer introduced a bill, to aid in the construction of certain railroads in the State of Missouri, by a grant of a portion of the pub-of Missouri, by a grant of a portion of the pub-lic lands. Referred to the Committee on Pub-

Mr. Lane, of Oregon, on leave, offered a seclution calling upon the War Department or information in relation to Indian war expenses in Oregon.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, said he would not object, but he thought the resolution would do at any time, for the War Dapartment had not yet presented information called for two months ago.

not yet presented information called for two months ago.

Mr. Lane said there was then the greater necessity for an early call, but he had not found the Department tardy.

The resolution was adopted.

Many bills and resolutions of minor or private interest were reported from the Committee on Pablic Lands, and variously disposed of.

Mr. McDougall, from the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads, reported back the bill introduced by Mr. Churchwell, for the transportation of the mails from New Orleans to San Francisco and back, twice a month.

Mr. Churchwell addressed the House in support of it, urging it as called for by the demands of the country; and he incidentally denied that the Post Office Department, properly administered, required an increase of the rates of postage.

of postage.

Mr. Churchwell yielded the floor at a quarter before one o'clock to Mr. Grey, on whose motion the House went into Committee of the a speech upon the Nebraska-Kansas bill. He would have to do with nothing but what he regarded as the essential question before the House. He would have nothing to say about negroes, negrophobis, nor negro mania. He would speak of contracts, of faith and honor. Congress had made no contracts with negroes, Congress had made no contracts with negroes, but in Congress contracts had been made between the different sections of the Union.

Mr. Chandler then proceeded to prove, from the record, a contract assented to by the South, and the benefits of which had been enjoyed by the South, the letter and spirit of which was now attempted to be violated.

Mr. Chandler was minute and particular in maintaining that in the Compression of 1850.

maintaining that, in the Compromise of 1850, the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was never dreamed of. Had it been, the latter never dreamed of. Had it been, the latter Compromise would never have been effected. Mr. Smith, of Tennessee, addressed the Com-mittee on the same subject. He would support-either of the bills on the table, but preferred the Senate bill.

The mode of opposition to this bill had opened the Slavery question; but a principle had been established in 1850, that ought to prevent

Mr. Smith was in favor of State Rights, of Squatter Sovereignty, and of the right of every slaveholder to go with his slaves to any Territory of which he was part owner. The Badger Proviso did not trouble him. The bill was the same, with or without it. His argument to prove this was elaborate and technical. What s called the Missouri Compromise was uncon-titutional, and had always been so pronounced by the Supreme Court.

Ten Thousand Copies in Ten Days. Uncle Tom Belipsed by the Lamplighter! THE most extraordinary and Thrilling Tale of modern times. This is the universal testimony of the Newspaper Press, and the verdict of the Reading Public. We have been utterly unable to fill our orders, so great has been the demand for this GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE.

The following are samples of the opinions of the Corps Editorial: We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamp ghter one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, that has lately appeared. We redict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most accessful of modern remances.—Daily Eve. Travel-

For delicate and forcible delineation of character, this work is hardly excelled.—Boston Journal.

The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around fresides and in hearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and despair.—Daily Bee, Boston.

much of darkness and despair.—Daily Bee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer.—Daily Advertises, Boston.

credit to any writer.— Daily Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inelegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Daily Atlas.

I HEREBY constitute Mr. Simon Willard, No. 9 Congress street, Boston, sole agent for the sale of my Watches in the United States of America.
April 15, 1853. CHARLES FRODSHAM.

The undersigned, having been appointed sole Agent in the United States for the sale of Charles Frodsham The undersigned, having been appointed sole Agent in the United States for the sale of Charles Frodsham's Improved Timekeepers, would respectfully call public attention to his extensive and valuable stock of Compensated Chronometer Watches, made by Charles Frodsham, and styled his "New Series." In the Watches of the new series, Mr. Frodsham has succeeded—by a more perfect method of compensation, a more correct adjustment in isochronism, and an entirely new and peculiar construction of the train, by which more power is obtained without increase of size—in producing timekeepers of wonderful and unrivalled accuracy. The great importance of the improved Watches is a perfect regularity of time, under every variety of climate, motion, and position. So perfect are the adjustments, that the most violent exercise—such as horseback riding, jumping, &c—produces on them no sensible effect. They are therefore peculiarly adapted to railroad purposes.

The scientific French critic, Mons. Borsendorf, in his review of the Great London Exhibition of 1851, styles the contribution of Mr. Charles Frodsham as "bearing the stamp of peculiar merit, and as being the flower of the English school."

The British Government have awarded Messrs. Arnold and Charles Frodsham the sum of £3,170, for the excellence of the principle of their timekeepers.
One of Mr. Frodsham's correspondents writes as follows:

LONDON, April 26, 1852. LONDON, April 26, 1852.

Sig: I have much pleasure in giving an account of the Gold Compensation Lever Watch No. 3,325, yon have made for me, and in which I expressly stipulated that it should maintain a uniform rate of going under every variety of motion and climate. This it has done in a most remarkable manner; its rate of going for the first six months was five seconds per month, and in the next six months it changed its rate a little faster, vix: eight seconds per month, and at the end of 365 days it was found to be fast of Green wich mean time one minute and fifteen seconds. the end of 365 days it was found to be fast of Greenwich mean time one minute and fifteen seconds. Though I was not led by any previous promise to expect such performance, yet I believe it is only the usual character of your improved watches, which you term your "new series."

I remain, sir, yours, respectfully,

Thomas Bartlett

To Mr. Charles Frodsham. The undersigned has received the following :

Boston, October 5, 1853.

Sin: I herewith give you an account of the remarkable performance of the watch I purchased of you, made by Charles Frodsham, No. 7,014. Its total variation for 17 months, by weekly observations, was but one minute and fifty five seconds. BILLINGS BRIGGS. Yours, respectfully, To Mr. Simon Willard.

The Compensated Lever Watch I purchased of you, made by Charles Frodsham, of London, No. 7,300, as varied but thirty seconds from mean time in six months, by actual daily comparison with your regulator. Yours, &c.,

DEAFNESS CUR ED. SCARPA'S COMPOUND ACOUSTIC OIL, for the CARPA'S COMPOUND ACOUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deafness, Pains, and the Discharge of Matter from the cars; also, all those disagreeable noises, like the tuzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, &c., &c., which are symptoms of approaching deafness, and also generally attended with disease. Many persons, who have been deaf for ten, fifteen, and twenty years, and were obliged to use ear trumpets, have, after using one or two bottles, thrown aside their trumpets, being made perfectly well. Physicians and surgeons highly recommend its use.

MESSES EDITORS: Deafness is a disease which has hitherto been considered incurable, but I can inform the public that it is a mistaken idea. I had been deaf for ten years, and concluded that I must remain so; but not many month since, I saw in your paper an advertisement of "Scarpa's Oil," for deafness. As a last resort, I concluded to try it; and now. I am happy to say, I can hear as well as any one. Two of my friends have also used it. One was so deaf that he used an ear trumpet—now, he hears perfectly well without it; the other was very much troubled with noises in the ears and head, and he at ence found relief, and is well. One bottle cured me, which I thought getting well pretty cheap. Yours, &c. SILAS BUGBER, Segond st., below Pine.

Bastman's Infallible Sick Headache Lemedy HIS preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D., of Lynn, Mass., has been used in private practice for the last four years, with the greatest success. A radical cure has been effected in every instance where the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. It is now given to the public with the full confidence that it will do all that is claimed for it, and prove itself, upon fair trial, an infallible Sick Headache Remedy.

It is safe and pleasant to the taste, it brings immediate relief, and all who test its curative virtues rejoice in the removal of pain, and marvel at its power in alleviating so general, and often so fatal, a scourge. The following is from D. C. Baker, Esq., Mayor of Lynn, and President of the Howard Banking Company, Boston:

Dr. E. P. Eastman. Dr. E. P. Eastman.

DEAR SIR: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to be very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully convenient their value.

Respectfully yours, LYNN, August 6, 1853. Dr. E. P. Eastman.

My Dear Sir: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, since my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cured me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in every instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

Falthfully yours.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only tair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked. We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial exam-ination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. From the United States Argus. To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the eard of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

It contains 178; acros, more than 30 of which is a fine alluvial mendow, producing a ton and a half of hay to the acre, but which under improved cultivation would produce at least two tons. Hay sells in the Washington market at from $15 to $30 per ton. About 60 acres of the farm is woodland—growth principally oak and chestnut. The land, except the meadow, is undulating, and affords many beautiful sites for building. There are many springs of excellent water on the place, and it is noted for its healthfulness. The soil of the greater part of the upland is a sandy loam, underlaid by clay—in some places, clay predominating. About 75 acres could be divided into small gardening farms, giving nearly an equal quantity of wood and arable land to each. There is an orchard of 150 peach trees and 60 apple trees on the place, all bearing. The farm is well fenced. The buildings are—a log house of four rooms, with a frame addition of three rooms, a meat-house of sun-dried brick, a log kitchen soparate from the dwelling, a corn-house, stable, carriage-house, &c.
